TECHNOLOGIES

REAL-TIME SIMULATION IS ENABLING THE WORLD'S VISIONARIES TO MAKE INNOVATIVE IDEAS A REALITY.

OPAL-RT empowers engineers and researchers with accessible, cutting-edge, real-time simulation technology to accelerate the development of better products and more reliable energy transmission. We strive to inspire you to innovate beyond the ordinary to become pioneers in your industries.

Since 1997, industries including automotive, aerospace, power electronics and power generation have increasingly turned to OPAL-RT, transforming the company into a world leader in real-time simulation and Hardware-in-the-Loop (HIL) testing equipment for electrical, electro-mechanical and power electronics systems.

At our 9th Annual International Conference on Real-Time Simulation, we invite you to come explore trends in real-time simulation, hear inspiring success stories, attend informative live demos and meet OPAL-RT's experts, all while networking with other creative minds from around the world, sharing your knowledge and challenging the future of the industry.

In 2017, OPAL-RT celebrates its 20th anniversary. To celebrate, our closing party at #RT17 will include everyone from OPAL-RT, from all departments, and is sure to be a night to remember!

BECOME A SPONSOR!

Become a sponsor at #RT17, and benefit not only from the opportunity to network with industry experts from across the globe, but by having your brand prominently displayed throughout the entire event.

" Since 2013 Triphase has been exhibiting at the OPAL-RT Real-Time conferences. This event provides a unique opportunity to present our products and learn from OPAL-RT users. The attendees represent a good mix between industrial and academic users from different application areas. We obtain valuable feedback and insight on new trends and opportunities. The OPAL-RT team sets a lovely environment and an open business culture. We always look forward to the next event !"
